The Proclamation also maintains the exclusion of bifacial CSPV panels from the safeguard measure. The Trump Administration first granted the exclusion in June of 2019, but subsequently attempted to withdraw the exclusion after finding that it had undermined the effectiveness of the safeguard measure. The US Court of International Trade into the United States” of the articles subject to an existing safeguard measure. If the President negotiates such an agreement, he may “suspend or terminate” the safeguard action, “in whole or in part[.]”

The Proclamation authorizes USTR to suspend the application of the safeguard measure “in whole or in part” with respect to imports of Canada or Mexico, if USTR concludes agreements with those countries that USTR determines
